New Shipping Options

In the event that only part of your order is in stock ready to ship, this enhancement will allow you to select if you want to ship partial order or if you would like to wait and ship a complete order. Customers will no longer have to call or email to make changes to their order.

New Comments Fields

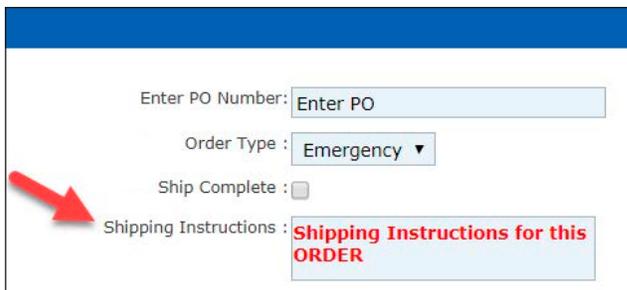

Line item comments allow you to add comments to a specific line item, if needed i.e. paint color, model and serial of the machine, etc.

Header level comments allow you to add more detail to an entire order, i.e. shipping instructions, DHL account number, etc.
